Congratulations on capturing the BHS Spirit and recording it on these pages.

May you be repaid many fold from the echoes of silent pleasures reaching you from the Exes down through the years, as they relive that Spirit recorded here.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Final official figures showed Thursday that Sen John F. Kennedy won the presidency from Vice President Richard M. Nixon by 112,494 votes — the smallest percentage margin in U.S. political history.

The results meant that Kennedy will be the nation's 35th "mighty" president, United Press International's tabulation of the official votes from all 50 states shows an all-time high total of 68,971,306 votes were cast for president in the record-smashing New 8 election. Kennedy got 34,121,479, and minor party candidates 518,499.
